Estate and Gift Taxes

Estates. The federal estate tax exemption in 2021 is $11,700,000. With appropriate tax filings and tax elections, married couples may secure a $23,400,000 exemption regardless of which spouse dies first or how the couple owns their property (assuming that they both die in 2021). Amounts in excess of the exemption are taxed at a 40% rate.

Gifts. The lifetime federal gift tax exemption in 2021 is $11,700,000. Amounts transferred in excess of the exemption are taxed at 40%.

For 2021, the annual exclusion from the gift tax is $15,000. A gift no larger than $15,000 may be given to each of as many people as you wish without incurring gift tax or using up your lifetime federal gift tax exclusion. To qualify for the annual exclusion, the gift must be of a “present interest,” meaning that the person receiving the gift must have the immediate right to use and enjoy the gift, without strings attached. Couples may “split” their gifts to secure a $30,000 annual exclusion.

When withdrawals are made and used for qualified education expenses (college or up to $10,000 of elementary or secondary school expenses) or up to $10,000 (lifetime limit per individual) used to pay principal or interest on qualified education loan, they won't be taxed either.

Coverdell Education Savings Accounts (CESAs). You can contribute up to $2,000 a year per child to a CESA. Earnings grow tax free as long as withdrawals are used for qualified education expenses. Eligibility to contribute the full amount phases out between a modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) of $95,000 and $110,000 (singles); between $190,000 and $220,000 (marrieds filing jointly).

American Opportunity Tax Credit. The maximum American Opportunity Tax Credit is 100% of the first $2,000 and 25% for the next $2,000 of qualified tuition and related expenses. The credit phases out at MAGI of $160,000 for marrieds filing jointly ($80,000 for singles).

Lifetime Learning Credit. The maximum Lifetime Learning Credit is $2,000, with the credit phasing out at modified adjusted gross income of $160,000 for marrieds filing jointly ($80,000 for singles).

Charitable contributions. For 2021, those who itemize their deductions may take a deduction of up to 100% of adjusted gross income (AGI) for their charitable gifts. Those who do not itemize will be permitted to take an “above-the-line” adjustment to AGI in addition to the standard deduction. The maximum adjustment is $300 for singles, $600 for marrieds filing jointly.
